As required by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Federal Trade Commission, the Privacy Policy below explains our handling of the information that we have in our records that is personal and private to you. It reiterates our commitment to keeping that information private.

Information We Collect

In the course of doing business with you, we collect nonpublic information about you from the following sources:

- 👉 Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your social security number, personal financial information, occupation, and birth date;
- 👉 Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others such as payment history, account balance, assets, and past transactions; and
- 👉 Information we collect from you through your account inquiries by mail, e-mail, or telephone.

Disclosure of Information to Nonaffiliated Third Parties

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to any nonaffiliated third parties, except with prior consent or as permitted by law. Disclosures permitted by law include information to our service providers, such as transfer agents, custodians, shareholder communications firms, technology consultants and clearing firms. As a rule, we only provide this information to those entities whose services are necessary for us to properly fulfill our investment services to you. We only share with these service providers the information they need to provide these services and they are required to use this information only to provide the services.

Disclosure of Information to Affiliates

Subject to applicable law, Tweedy, Browne Company LLC, its mutual funds and other investment funds share information with each other about their customers and former customers and may use this information to market their products and services to you in a manner they are confident does not impinge upon your privacy. In addition, for internal accounting, record keeping, and auditing purposes, we may from time to time share limited information relating to your account with our holding company affiliate, which uses the information solely for the above mentioned purposes. Neither we nor our holding company affiliate shares any of this information with any other affiliates. In certain states there may be restrictions on the ability of one affiliate to use this information obtained from another affiliate without first offering customers the ability to opt out of such sharing of information. Due to Tweedy, Browne Company LLC's position as distributor of substantially all of such funds and as advisor for all of its separate account customers, in general it obtains all of such information directly and accordingly is not subject to these restrictions with respect to its own use of such information.

Security Standards

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to ensure the integrity and confidentiality of your nonpublic personal information in the manner described above.
